A MESSAGE FROM SWAMI BODHANANDA

On the occasion of

Rudrabhishekam and Chandi Homam at SCHE

August 7-8, 2010

at

The Sambodh Center, Kalamazoo

Blessed Self,

The most auspicious Vedic Rituals Rudrabhishekam and Chandi Homam that have been an annual feature of Sambodh Center for the last several years fall in the early part of August this year. This ritual is traditionally performed for world peace, unity and spiritual upliftment. Such rituals become more and more important at a time when the world is going through unprecedented levels of violence, disruption and despair. These rituals will also confer prosperity, health, success in business and harmony in marital relationships upon the devotee.

I ardently pray and request you to participate in this holy ritual by sponsoring the listed pujas and homas and encouraging others to do the same. You and your children need the calming effects brought by the serene vibrations of authentic Vedic rituals and chanting. What works for you will indeed work for your friends and their children, too.

Having done your best to accomplish your dreams, don't just sit and worry about the outcome, but use the rest of your time for invoking the Lord whose grace and benediction alone can make our works fruitful and life blissful. The Bhagavad Gita says that invoking the "gods (cosmic energies), empowered through the practice of rituals, will in turn nourish and empower the devotee and fulfill all his/her wishes."

Love and regards,
Swami Bodhananda
