This talk will focus on the five questions that Arjuna asked to Krishna in the battle field of Kurukshetra. Krishna's answers to those questions clarified Arjuna's doubts and motivated him to fight and win the war. Moral confusion, and the resultant paralysis and drift in the field of action, is the central problem that humans face in their daily life, whether it is in the family or the work place. The big picture that the Gita provides can clarify our confusions and help discover purpose, motivation and happiness in life. Swami Bodhananda takes the listener through a life changing journey through Bhagavad Gita, the song celestial.

Guru leads the way to God. Guru is a role model. Guru helps us purify our minds by practical instructions and removes spiritual ignorance by scriptural teachings.

Swamiji will refer to Shirdi Saibaba, who was one of the greatest spiritual luminaries of modern India and worshipped all over the world with great devotion and reverence. Shirdi Saibaba was a Guru of exemplary qualities who personified the Upanishad dictum: 'aheduka dayasindhu', ocean of motiveless compassion.
