

ॐ

धर्म

हीं

Hindu Dharma for the 21st Century

Interpretations, Innovations, and Issues

Editors

Swami Bodhananda Saraswati
Raman Anantaraman

The Sambodh Society, Inc.
Kalamazoo, MI ~ Los Angeles, CA

ह्रीं

अर्थ

श्रीं

काम

मोक्ष

Table of Contents

Dedication	iii	Session 5: Āśrams, Gurus, and the Teaching Tradition	193
Appreciation	iv	Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	194
List of Figures	viii	Introduction by Lakshmi Subramanian	195
Foreword	ix	Teachers and Teaching, by Swami Bodhananda	197
Acknowledgements and Notes	xiii	Āśrams in the United States, by Cybelle Shattuck	202
Figure Credits	xv	The Glory of the Guru, by Sunder Hattangadi	213
Key to Transliteration	xvi	Panel Discussion	220
		Points to Ponder	243
Opening Session	1	Session 6: Scriptures and Their Interpretations	245
Welcome by Gopal Singh	2	Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	246
Presidential Address by Swami Bodhananda	4	Introduction by C. Adinarayana Reddy	247
Inaugural Address: What is Hinduism?, by Arvind Sharma	9	Interpreting Scriptures, by Swami Bodhananda	248
How to Define Hinduism: Points to Ponder	22	The Teachings of the Scriptures, by Sunder Hattangadi	252
Session 1: Sanātana Dharma	25	Understanding Scriptures Correctly, by K.S. Sripada Raju	270
Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	26	Panel Discussion	277
Introduction by Vivek Subramanian	27	Points to Ponder	291
Universal Beliefs of Hindus, by Swami Bodhananda	29	Session 7: Facing the Legacy of Caste	293
Essentials of Sanātana Dharma, by C. Adinarayana Reddy	34	Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	294
Panel Discussion	52	Introduction by Renu Malhotra	295
Points to Ponder	63	Beyond Caste, by Swami Bodhananda	297
Session 2: Varṇāśrama Dharma	75	Caste: Not Cast in Stone, by K.S. Sripada Raju	304
Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	76	Panel Discussion	310
Introduction by Gopal Singh	77	Points to Ponder	321
Social Structures Based on Beliefs, by Swami Bodhananda	78	Session 8: A Hindu Framework for Interfaith Dialogue	323
Evolution of the Class System, by Renu Malhotra	82	Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	324
Panel Discussion	101	Introduction by Cybelle Shattuck	325
Points to Ponder	112	Talking About Dialogue, by Swami Bodhananda	328
Session 3: Karma Siddhānta and Rebirth	117	Hindu Interfaith Principles, by Gopal Singh	333
Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	118	Preserving the Hindu Heritage, by Shashi Karve	345
Introduction by Ruth Harring	119	Panel Discussion	352
Moral Theory of Action, by Swami Bodhananda	120	Points to Ponder	362
Karma and Rebirth in Hindu Thought and Practice, by Nancy Falk	124	Closing Session	365
Panel Discussion	134	Valedictory Address: A View from the Periphery, by Nancy Falk	366
Points to Ponder	151	Vote of Thanks by Ruth Harring	378
Session 4: Temples and Image Worship (Mūrti Pūjā)	153	Closing Remarks by Gopal Singh	380
Vision for Session, by Swami Bodhananda	154	Appendices and Index
Introduction by Vivek Subramanian	155	Biodata of Speakers, Chairs, and Panelists	383
Worship and Rituals, by Swami Bodhananda	156	Chronology	389
Temples in the United States, by Sudhakar Kulkarni	160	Glossary	392
Panel Discussion	170	Index	399
Points to Ponder	186

Swami Bodhananda teaches Advaita Vedanta, Yogasutras, Bhagavad Gita, Upanishads, and scores of other Vedantic texts. Swamiji's teachings are imbued with a quality that at once takes the novice listener and the committed student to the sacred space of the higher self. After completing a degree in economics, he set out in search of divine knowledge, and wandered in the Himalayas performing austerities for a long period of time before setting out on his own mission. His erudition and insightfulness, along with a rare combination of rational and mystic qualities, make Swamiji a captivating and engaging public speaker. He has authored several books including "The Seven Hindu Spiritual Laws." Swamiji teaches and encourages individuals to attain the fullness of Spirit, to awaken their dynamic and divine human potential. Swamiji shows the way for an individual to convert weaknesses into strengths, traps into transcendence, dreams into accomplishments, and individual desires into Nature's purpose and God's will.

Swami Bodhananda Saraswati

Spiritual Director and Founder, The Sambodh Society, Inc.
the Sambodh Center for Human Excellence, Kalamazoo, MI
the Sambodh Foundation, India and the Bodhananda Research Foundation for Management & Leadership Studies, India

Dr. Raman Anantaraman, born in Kerala and brought up in Kolkata, received his Ph.D. in Physics from the University of Chicago in 1973. A nuclear physicist by training, he joined the National Superconducting Cyclotron Laboratory (NSCL) at Michigan State University in 1980 and worked there for over 32 years until his retirement at the end of 2012. As Assistant Director for User Relations, he dedicated much of his professional life to make NSCL a world-class user facility. Outside of his professional life, he was actively involved with the Bharatiya Temple of Lansing ever since the temple was built in 1994. He served as librarian, puja book maker, webmaster, and historian for over 15 years. He organized and/or participated in many religious programs and spiritual talks. He gave many talks to high-school and college groups and the general public on Hindu rituals and philosophy. By such means, he acquired a reasonable understanding of Hinduism, which he hopes to deepen in retirement.

Under the inspired leadership of Swami Bodhananda, The Sambodh Society and Sambodh Center aspire to nurture a community of spiritual seekers who work selflessly for the spiritual uplift of humanity, learn from the best of both Eastern and Western traditions, and are steeped in Vedanta, a vision which sees the world as one family and all paths as leading to the same Truth.

In the quiet woodlands of Kalamazoo, Michigan, the Sambodh Center for Human Excellence is emerging as a major facility in the United States for the teaching of Vedanta, Meditation, Ayurveda, and Yoga fostered by the Dharmic vision: the Unity of All, and the unity of all spiritual paths. Sambodh Center serves as the headquarters of The Sambodh Society, Inc. and is maintained by devotees, donors, and friends.

Contact

Sambodh Center for Human Excellence

6363 N. 24th Street, Kalamazoo, MI 49004
Email <sambodhsociety@sambodhsociety.us>