Sambodh Center for Human Excellence (SCHE)

Established in 1998, the Sambodh Society has been working steadily towards the goal of creating a center and its U.S. headquarters. In 2000, The Sambodh Society acquired 32 acres of rolling woodlands on the outskirts of Kalamazoo, Michigan. Swamiji gave the forest its name, “Sambodh Aranya,” meaning “The Forest of Enlightenment.” Swamiji also proposed the name for the center to be developed there, “Sambodh Center for Human Excellence” (SCHE). In 2003, with contributions coming in from devotees across the United States, the property mortgage was completely paid, setting the conditions for SCHE’s next stage of development.

Sambodh Center for Human Excellence: Headquarters of The Sambodh Society, Inc.

During November 2004 a group of dedicated committee members began working with an architect to design the building for SCHE. Two years later, again in November, The Sambodh Society, Inc. secured a mortgage for the project and construction began. The facility includes a Sanctuary for Teaching-Meditation Hall, Swamiji’s quarters, a Kitchen, Library, Office and a Multi-Purpose Room useful for Yoga, Aikido, Tai Chi, Children’s activities and other functions.

In the quiet woodlands of Kalamazoo, MI, Sambodh Center for Human Excellence (SCHE) is quietly emerging as a major facility in the United States for the teaching of Vedanta, Meditation, Ayurveda and Yoga fostered by the Dharmic vision: the unity of all, and the unity of all spiritual paths. SCHE serves as the headquarters of The Sambodh Society, Inc. and is maintained by devotees, donors and friends.

Under the inspired leadership of Swami Bodhananda, Sambodh Society and SCHE aspire to nurture a community of spiritual seekers who 1) work selflessly for the spiritual uplift of humanity; 2) learn from the best of both Eastern and Western traditions; and, 3) are steeped in Vedanta, a vision which sees the world as one family and that all paths lead to the same Truth.

What is Vedanta?

Vedanta is the ancient philosophical wisdom of India and the basis of Hinduism. Its principles and values can be found in the ancient scriptures of India: the Bhagavad Gita, 10 Upanishads, and the Brahma Sutras. This wisdom has been passed down through a living teacher-student lineage for more than 5,000 years, and comes to us directly from this long line of rishis (sages) through Swami Bodhananda Saraswati.

Swami Bodhananda Saraswati

is the Spiritual Director and Founder of The Sambodh Society, Inc. and the Sambodh Center for Human Excellence. He is a modern rishi and master of Vedanta belonging to the Saraswati lineage—one of ten sannyasa (renunciant) orders established in the 8th-century by Adi Sankaracharya, the renowned Indian philosopher and exponent of Advaita Vedanta. Swamiji has been teaching Vedanta for 25 years and has established a number of centers in both north and south India.

SEVEN HINDU SPIRITUAL LAWS

"Hinduism offers the world seven unique spiritual Truths: Brahman; Maya; Dharma, Karma; Yoga; Yajna; and Leela. Synthesizing 7000 years of India's wisdom tradition. Swami Bodhananda eloquently explains these core concepts for both the Hindu and non-Hindu reader. Know and apply these laws and live harmoniously."

SELF UNFOLDMENT IN AN INTERACTIVE WORLD

"The paradox of modern life is that we live in unprecedented levels of comfort, and yet we are unhappy! Self-Unfoldment provides a manual for those who want to make a qualitative difference to the world in which they live and work, for those who "want the kind of happiness that is continuous and stable, happiness that we have no fear of losing."

MEDITATION: THE AWAKENING OF INNER POWERS

"Meditation is not opposed to activity; it is not opposed to thought, but becomes the nourishment for our thinking and activities. Activity and meditation infuse energy into one another and create a wholeness of experience. To realize God as the oneness of existence, we have to meditate. Ultimately meditation is total love for everything."

FIVE SPIRITUAL QUESTIONS OF ARJUNA

Arjuna confronts the Lord Krishna with five spiritual questions on the "battlefield" of life. As relevant today for the spiritual seeker as they were 1000s of years ago.. Swamiji illumines Lord Krishna's answers which provide both solace and wisdom for our personal struggles in a demanding and relentlessly changing world
